

Year 5 Homework Grid

Tasks to do every week

Reading/ Phonics

Read your reading book and have an adult sign your reading diary.
Aim to read your book 3 times a week. Any independent reading can also be recorded in your diary.

Purplemash

Use Purplemash to check if you have any 2Dos for English, Maths, Science, History, RE- your teacher will set these for you each week.
Play educational games and practice your computing skills!

Times tables

Practise all your timestables up to 12x12. You can practice on TTRockstars And you can practice the Multiplication
Check at:
Topmarks MTC
Specifically focus on your 6, 7 and 8 times tables

Handwriting

Practice joining your letters, writing on the line, making your letters a consistent size, and finger spacing. All you need is a pencil and paper!

Independent Learning Activities

Geography

Do some independent research into mountains around the world. Can you order the most famous mountains up to the tallest in the world?
This information in the form of a poster, information text or an art project to be displayed in the classroom.

Physical activity

Get your heart racing by doing at least 10minutes of exercise every day.
Try skipping, football, dancing, walking up and down the stairs...
even cleaning works up a sweat!

Write all about it!

Keep a diary for a week and write about the things you have done and how you are feeling. You might want to add in illustrations.

You could research child workers in coal mines and cotton mills and write a diary from their point of view

English

Dr Who Should Daleks be allowed to live on Earth? Should the Doctor retire from being a time lord? Give both sides of the argument.
Avatar- Can you look at pictures from the film and describe the planet and characters?

Family time

Prepare a meal with your family. You could be in charge of the ingredients, of the chopping or stirring! (With an adult of course!)

Homework will be set every week on Thursday, using Purple Mash. Reading books will be changed every other week- please sign your child's reading diaries weekly as they are checked every Wednesday.
